

Inmarsat-5 coverage

inmarsatgx.com

The first I-5 satellite is scheduled for launch in 2013 over the Indian Ocean. The full constellation will be deployed throughout 2014, with global coverage planned for the end of the year. Please note coverage is indicative as the service is not yet operational. Inmarsat-5 coverage May 2013

